Product Details

These days, most businesses provide their employees with ID or name cards. While they're helpful for customers, clients, and co-workers—particularly those who struggle to remember names!—they're also essential for the security of a business, allowing you to identify at a glance whether or not someone is a staff member or if they're a visitor.

EnvironPrint name cards can be used in conjunction with lanyards or other ID holders, but they can also be clipped or pinned to clothes. Use them to identify employees by name, job title, and ID number. For conferences, events, and meetings, we also offer single-use ID and name cards printed with adhesive backing.

Our planet-friendly digital printing process yields vibrant colors and sharp images for a professional look. Name and ID cards are printed on high-quality paper stock or sticker paper with water-based inks.

Highlights of our custom business forms include:

- Choose from 3 standard sizes or custom size name cards
- Available in uncoated cardstock or paper with adhesive backing
- Vibrant full color digital printing
- Water-based ink with no chemical solvents

Frequently Asked Questions About ID and Name Card Printing

What types of paper are EnvironPrint ID and name cards printed on?

Our ID and name cards are printed on sustainably-sourced white sticker paper or 14 pt. cardstock.

Can I have name or ID cards printed in a size not listed on the product page?

Yes, if you'd like your name or ID cards in a different size, simply choose the blank option in the drop-down menu, then manually enter your desired width and height.

How can I design ID and name cards for my business?

We make it easy for you to design your own ID and name cards. Download one of our file templates from the product page, then use it to design a custom ID card. Upload your design to our website when you're ready to place your order. For a corporate ID card, we recommend including a photograph along with each employee's name and position; a one-time use sticker name card used for an event should have each attendee's name written in a clear, bold font to make it easy for others to read.

What is the minimum quantity of ID cards that I can order?

The minimum quantity of ID or name cards that you can order is 1, but it's best to order in batches when possible to get a bulk discount.

How long will it take to get my custom ID or name cards?
