Frequently Asked Questions About Custom Paper Sign Printing

What types of paper are EnvironPrint paper signs printed on?

We use high quality, sustainably-sourced paper stock for our paper signs to ensure that they'll last as long as you need them to. Our options include 100 lb. paper, 10 pt. C2S, 16 pt., and 18 pt. paper stock.

Can I have paper signs printed in a size not listed here?

The sizes listed are common choices with our customers, but our printing process is custom, which means you can choose any size that you need. Simply select the blank option next to size, then enter your desired width and height.

What is the best finish choice for a paper sign?

The best finish choice depends on your needs and the way you plan on using your paper signs. If you're creating signs that you plan to use again and again, one of our matte finishes is a great option because it won't show fingerprints. For a finish that's well-suited for signs featuring photographs, opt for gloss—but keep in mind that it's reflective, so you may not want to use it if you are including a great deal of text or will be hanging your paper sign in an environment with bright overhead lighting.

How can I design custom paper signs?

To design your own paper signs, browse our selection of downloadable file templates and choose the one that works best for your needs. Use the template to design your sign, then upload it to our website when you're placing your order.

Can I print on both sides of my paper sign?

Yes, you can choose to print on one side of your sign or both sides. Two-sided printing is useful for creating custom open and closed signs for your business or to simply get more value out of your order by printing two separate messages on one sign.

What is the minimum quantity of custom paper signs that I can order?

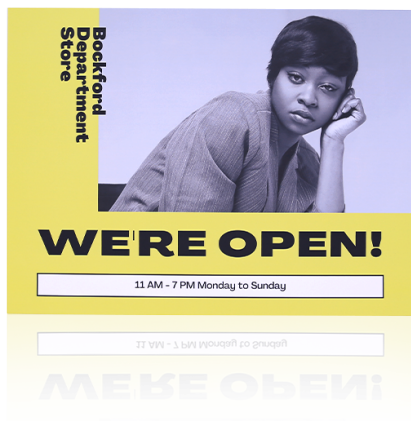

We have no minimum quantity at EnvironPrint, which means that if you only need one sign, you don't have to order any extras. This also allows you to order a single paper sign to ensure that you're happy with your design, paper stock, and finish selection before placing a full order.

How long will it take to get my custom paper signs?

If you need custom paper sign printing fast, EnvironPrint will deliver! When you place your sign order, you'll have the option to select your desired printing time. Next, use our shipping rates and delivery estimates to choose a shipping speed. Select our premium shipping option to have your sign delivered 1-2 days after printing is complete.
